

Do not consider repealing the rules that prohibit a media company from owning both a newspaper and a TV station in the same geographic area. This consolidation will inhibit freedom of speech and expression from many different sides of a story. Also consolidation makes it easier for monopolies to form, which directly affects the american publics access to alternative sources of information.